LOCAL COMMUNITY MANAGER EARNS PROFESSIONAL CREDITS

Mr. Patrick Crocetta of The Fairways has successfully completed the third course of a three-course program in manufactured home community management. The Accredited Community Manager program is sponsored by the Manufactured Housing Educational Institute (MHEI®) located in Arlington, Virginia.

The three-course program is designed to provide professional training for manufactured home community managers and to enhance the business and communication skills of the participants. The program culminates with the awarding of the designation, Accredited Community Manager (ACM®). The ACM designation is earned by taking three courses each lasting two and one half days, completing a final project and meeting experience requirements set by MHEI.

MHEI is the educational arm of the Manufactured Housing Institute, the national trade association representing the manufactured housing industry.
