TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I wish to recommend Patrick R. Crocetta for a position with your organization. I have known Patrick for the past four years and have had ample time to observe and converse with him on many occasions. I have reached the conclusion that he is a talented, honest, and energetic person of unquestioned character. He has enormous talent for working with others as is evident from his extra curricular achievements and his contributions to the college.

Patrick was an excellent student, always striving for greater accomplishments and to satisfy his strong intellectual curiosity. Patrick has excellent leadership and organizational skills which were very useful in his various roles in student government, the recycling program and the Alpha Kappa Psi Fraternity. He was well liked and respected by his peers and always seemed ready to assist others in need. His overall profile makes him an ideal candidate for a marketing and/or sales position.

I recommend him to you without reservations and know that he will very quickly prove to be an invaluable asset to your organization. If you need further information concerning him, please do not hesitate to contact me for further discussion.

Sincerely,

Peter Amato
Associate Dean
