

““This letter is my personal recommendation for Patrick Crocetta. I had the pleasure of working with Patrick as a co-worker and friend for over 6 years. I found Patrick to not only be a dedicated friend, but an outstanding Regional Sales Manager. Patrick's energy, ideas and motivation is Contagious! He has a personality that just attracts you. It's magnetic, causing you to want to be around him so you catch what he has. The person in the room you want to be next to so you can hear what his ideas are.

As a Regional Sales Manager myself, I have watch Patrick grow and take on region after region leaving his mark on each. Sales were always sure to grow with Patrick at the helm. Patrick is highly regarded and respected by his team and his peers. Patrick took RSM of the Year, I believe last year, and could easily win it year over year.

His ideas are creative, he thinks outside the box, he makes things happen, "in spite of". He is an outstanding professional and would be a great addition to any team.

I will miss working with him and can only hope our paths will cross again! Until then, I would highly recommend Patrick Crocetta. He is a team player and and would be an asset to any organization.

I would suggest you snag him quickly. I know I would!

Regards,” May 30, 2011
